WEATHER

WEATHER SYNOPSIS BY REGION:

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA AND CENTRAL COASTAL AREAS:

Eureka Weather:

The trough over northwest California brings conditions that have the possibility of initiating showers and isolated thunderstorms over the high terrain late this afternoon and evening. Activity will begin to subside tonight with only a slight chance of showers over the Trinity Horn Tuesday afternoon as high pressure begins to build back over the eastern Pacific. Inland temperatures will rise through the end of the week.

Medford Weather:

Scattered showers and isolated thunderstorms are expected to redevelop from the Cascades and Siskiyou's east again this afternoon as a weakening upper trough lingers. The storms will continue into the evening, but they should diminish earlier than they did Monday. This should be the last round of storms for this week as the air aloft warms and the resulting inversion caps convection.

Reno Weather:

Persistent low pressure along the West Coast and residual moisture will support isolated afternoon thunderstorms through Thursday. High temperatures start slightly below average rising to near normal by Friday. Potential for wider coverage of showers and thunderstorms will be present next week.

San Francisco Weather:

A dry, but persistent upper level trough near the west coast will maintain cooler than normal daytime temperatures across inland areas through Tuesday. Warmer conditions are forecast for Wednesday and Thursday and then a cooling trend as we had into next weekend.

CENTRAL CALIFORNIA AND SOUTHERN SAN JOAQUIN VALLEY:

Sacramento Weather:

Isolated northern coastal mountain thunderstorms today warmer temperatures will be the main weather impacts Wednesday into Friday. A cooling trend can be expected this weekend with the possibility of precipitation for some areas.

Hanford Weather:

There is a slight chance of a few afternoon showers and possibly thunderstorms along the Sierra Crest today through Thursday. Otherwise, temperatures will trend slightly warmer through the end of the week under mostly sunny skies. There is some potential for tropical moisture from Hurricane Dolores to reach the Central California interior over the weekend, possibly resulting in showers and thunderstorms.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA:

Los Angeles Weather:

Night through morning low clouds and patchy fog are expected this week. Temperatures will be around normal through Friday and will warm up over the weekend. Monsoonal moisture may move in over the weekend bringing a slight chance of showers and thunderstorms.

Extreme Southwestern California including Orange, San Diego, Western Riverside and Southwestern San Bernardino Counties:

Low pressure in the upper atmosphere will keep the weather fair and dry across southern California this week with marine clouds and patchy fog developing each night and spreading into the western valleys towards dawn. By the weekend, high pressure will strengthen to the east and bring a return of monsoonal moisture with a chance of showers and thunderstorms, especially over the mountains and deserts.

Southeast California Weather:

Dry weather with near normal temperatures will continue across the lower deserts through Thursday. Temperatures will barely budge over the next few days with highs right around normals each day.
